WHERE IS CHOBE NOKA LODGE

17°47'49.0"S 25°15'00.7"E

"Noka" is the local word for river. Chobe Noka Lodge is beautifully positioned on an island along the south bank of the Chobe River, very close to its confluence with the Zambezi River. Here you'll sleep in comfy canvas tents surrounded by tall mahogany and mangosteen trees. Guided game drives will delight you with their up close wildlife encounters.

WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO GO

Chobe Noka Lodge is open year-round with excellent game viewing throughout the seasons. Water levels are highest in April to October for exploring by boat (optional and at an additional cost). At other times of year, water activities may be restricted.

Dry season: April – October
Green season: November – March
