A RELAXED, 22 BED SAFARI LODGE, SET AMONGST A FOREST OF LEADWOOD AND ACACIA TREES ALONG THE BANKS OF THE THAMALAKANE RIVER IN A PRIVATE GAME RESERVE.

WHERE IS THAMO TELELE

20°03'23.0"S 23°22'11.9"E

Thamo Telele is located in a stunning private reserve on the banks of the Thamalakane river, 30 minutes from the safari town of Maun. Perfect for a night either side of your safari, it is situated 14km from Maun International Airport. The reserve offers an abundance of plains game and birdlife. Including giraffe, kudu, zebra, springbok, impala, wildebeest, oryx and more.

WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO GO

Thamo Telele is open all year round. This 250-hectare private game reserve is brimming with ideal habitats of river, riverine and dry savannah, and is an excellent stop-over throughout the year.

Dry season: April – October
Green season: November – March

Please see our rates sheet for detailed information on seasons & pricing.

HOW DO I GET THERE

Fly to Maun International Airport and transfer by road (about 30 minutes) or helicopter (5 minutes - at additional cost). Thamo Telele is perfectly located as an easy, safari style stop-over to be enjoyed either at the beginning or the end of your safari (or both!).

WHERE WILL I STAY

Thamo Telele is a peaceful bush haven, with 9 safari-style tents and 2 thatched chalets set amongst a forest of ancient leadwood and acacia trees. All rooms are air-conditioned, with pops of colour in the décor adding to the relaxed vibe. Each of the tents are on raised wooden platforms with beautiful hardwood floors, a private deck and ensuite bathroom with a stand-alone bath and outside shower. The chalets have an air of romance with a king size canopy bed, a large built-in bath, and an outdoor shower. They are also spacious enough to accommodate young children.

WHAT WILL I EAT

Our wonderful chefs have a reputation for their good, wholesome and hearty meals. Please let us know of any dietary requirements prior to arrival.

FULLY INCLUSIVE RATE INCLUDES

Maun airport transfers, all meals, some daily activities, local drinks, laundry are included. Flights, premium brand beverages, discretionary tips/gratuities, items of a personal nature and personal travel insurance are excluded.
